

- Parts of his social behavior theory
 1. self develops only through interaction
 2. social experience are from the exchange of symbols
 3. "taking the role of the other"
 4. by taking role of other person becomes self-aware

* Great setting for socialization

- family

- school

- peer groups

- mass media

*